

Join ACMA's Composites Advocacy Program!

ACMA is fighting hard on Capitol Hill to reverse NTP's listing of styrene as a "reasonably anticipated carcinogen". To succeed we need your support. Please complete this form and join the Composites Advocacy Program. As a "composites advocate," ACMA will help you effectively communicate with your elected representatives as well as coordinate messages so that we are most effective in advocating for the composites industry. For more information, contact MJ Carrabba at (703) 682-1668 or mcarrabba@acmanet.org.
