

Lobby Day Fly In 2010

Tentative Agenda

*unless otherwise noted, events take place at the Hyatt Regency.

April 14

Pre Event Activity

2:00 – 5:00 pm      Government Affairs Committee Meeting (State Services Organization, Room 231)

5:30 -8:00 pm      Congressional Reception (with NAM) (Hyatt Regency, Regency Ballroom A)
Be sure to arrive in time for this not-to-be missed reception with your peers from ACMA and other member companies of the National Association of Manufacturers. All Congressional Representatives are invited to attend this reception as well, so take advantage of this informal opportunity to speak with representatives.

April 15

7:45 – 9:00 am      Breakfast w/Guest Speaker: Senator Jon Kyl, United States Senator for Arizona and Republican Whip (with NAM)
This breakfast will take place with NAM, and features Jon Kly (R-AZ) who will provide insights on the political environment of interest to manufacturers.

9:00 – 10:00 am:      ACMA Briefing and Lobby Day Prep (Concord Room, Hyatt Regency)
This briefing will help you learn about the main issues to focus on during your visits and ways to deliver your message to members of congress and their staff. Information “leave behind” packets and your schedule of visits will also be distributed.

10:30 am– 5:00 pm: Visits on Capitol Hill

During this time participants will be making visits to members of congress. For information on specific visits, contact Jonathan Roberts at jroberts@acmanet.org.

6:00 – 9:00 pm

Dinner with Speaker, Dr. Robert Lindyberg P.E. (Location TBD)

Enjoy time to network and hear Dr. Robert Lindyberg, P.E., Assistant Director for Boatbuilding and Composites, AEW, Advanced Structures and Composites Center, The University of Maine, speak about the composites research programs at the University of Maine.

April 16

Post Event Activity

9:30 – 10:30 am:

Composites Caucus Breakfast Briefing (Rayburn Building Room B 340)

For those interested, ACMA will be hosting a briefing for congressional staffers on April 16th.